Under certain conditions the data will be also available to designated authorities of the Member States and to Europe for the purpose of the prevention, detection and investigation of terrorist offences and of other serious criminal offences. The authority of the Member State responsible for processing the data is:

I am aware that I have the right to check the accuracy of the data relating to me recorded in the VIS and of the Member State which transmitted the data, and to request that data relating to me which are inaccurate be corrected and the data relating to me processed only if they be deleted. At my express request, the authority examining my application will inform me of the manner in which I may exercise my right to check the personal data concerning me and have these corrected or deleted, including the related record in accordance with the national law of the State concerned. The national supervisory authority of that Member State (contact details) will, at my choice, oversee the protection of personal data.

I declare that to the best of my knowledge all particulars supplied by me are correct and complete. I am aware that any false statements will lead to my application being refused, or to the annulment of a visa already granted and may also render me liable to prosecution under the law of the Member State with details with the application.

I undertake to leave the territory of the Member States before the expiry of the visa, if granted. I have been informed that possession of a visa is only one of the prerequisites for entry into the European territory of the Member States. The mere fact that a visa has been granted in no way does mean that I will be entitled to cross national borders or comply with the relevant provisions of Article 21(1) of Regulation (EC) No 2626/2006 (Schengen Border Code) and I am therefore relying only on the visa as the document to enter or stay within the European territory of the Member States.
